Good evening and welcome to the 2023-24 Season's final concert, Violin Virtuosity featuring tonight's guest artist, Steven Greenman.

It's hard to imagine that this season could have gone by so quickly. This season has had its share of spectacular highlights: from saxophones, to costumes, to holiday traditions, to poignant celebrations of life, and to a trip to France – this orchestra has been able to provide you with some tremendous moments. Combine that with memorable chorale only concerts, Miss Jody and Mr. Jacob in the schools working with children, our teachers at the FSO school of music training the next generation's musicians, our small ensembles performing Around the Town and with Tunes for Tuesday, and the orchestra providing free concerts both in the summer and for families and children during the school year: all this good work that the organization does with and for the community is to be commended.

But none of this happens without you. We wish to give our deepest thanks to you, our patrons and supporters, for without you, live music is not live. As we say goodbye to Sawmill Creek Resort, we are very grateful for the support you have shown us these last several years. I cannot emphasize how crucial your dedication to our organization has been for our survival. The journey is not over, but we are so looking forward to saying hello to our old friend in October. We have finalized our season for next year and are very excited to share that with you. So, watch for our press releases, social media postings, and emails on how you can learn about next year's season and more importantly, instructions on how to reserve your personal seats at the beautiful Sandusky State Theatre.

So, from the Board of Directors, staff, and musicians, I'd like to thank you for coming this evening and supporting your Firelands Symphony Orchestra.

Enjoy the concert!

In addition to his work with the FSO, Topilow is Founding Conductor of the Cleveland Pops Orchestra, Conductor Laureate of the National Repertory Orchestra, a summer festival in Breckenridge, Colorado, and was named Faculty Emeritus at the Cleveland Institute of Music. He has served as principal pops conductor of the Toledo Symphony Orchestra, the Southwest Florida Symphony Orchestra, and the Mansfield Symphony Orchestra.

Topilow has performed as guest conductor with 132 different orchestras in 37 states and 12 foreign countries. In addition to concerts this season with the Ohio Valley Symphony and Florida Lakes Symphony, he will be giving master classes at Bob Jones University, the University of North Carolina Charlotte, the Collegiate Orchestral Directors Association conference, and hosting his second conducting workshop in Cleveland.

Topilow's wife Shirley is President and CEO of the Cleveland Pops Orchestra. Their daughter Emily is a marketing associate with the Cleveland Clinic, and their daughter Jenny is a violinist with the Charlotte Symphony Orchestra.

Carl's book, The Orchestral Conductor's Career Handbook published by Rowman and Littlefield, is now available through www.carltopilow.com and www.rowman.com.

The Firelands Symphony Orchestra is delighted to welcome back violin virtuoso Steven Greenman, last heard with the orchestra several years ago in a performance of The Butterfly Lover's Concerto, based on a Chinese folk legend. For this concert, our versatile guest will perform a series of pieces by Eastern European composers and pieces with Eastern European roots, including selections by legendary violinist David Rubinoff, John Williams' haunting Theme from Schindler's List, and Williams' Oscar winning adaptation of the score for the movie version of Fiddler on the Roof. Brahms famous Hungarian Dance #5 and a surprise encore will also be heard.

The orchestra will have the opportunity to perform colorful and exciting works by Czech, Rumanian, Ukrainian, and Russian composers. Dvorak, Smetana, Enesco, Gliere, and Mussorgsky all wrote highly descriptive music - for our concert, a carnival, a river, and music for dance.

Please join us for a lively and engaging evening of great music by your Firelands Symphony Orchestra!

Steven Greenman, violin

SPONSORED BY:

Described by the Washington Post as “particularly impressive” and “extraordinary” by the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, Steven Greenman is a consummate musical artist as a violinist, composer, and educator. He is a masterful violin soloist with symphony orchestras, a soulful performer of klezmer music, and a virtuoso performer of East European folk music. Steven’s influential recordings, klezmer music compositions and dedicated master classes have been internationally acclaimed.

Steven is renowned for his traditional Jewish and klezmer compositions. These original works have been recorded by international artists and researched by scholars, while two of his Jewish liturgical melodies have been published by the Shalsholet Foundation for New Jewish Liturgical Music. His landmark recordings Stempenyu’s Dream (2004) and Stempenyu’s Neshome (2010) have significantly expanded the traditional klezmer violin repertoire. Steven’s grand composition, Klezmer Concert Suite for Solo Violin and Orchestra (2018) embodies the full expressive and virtuosic range of the East European Jewish violin. As violin soloist, Steven performed the world premiere performance with the Muncie Symphony Orchestra (2018).

In addition to his involvement with klezmer music, Steven is an accomplished performer of urban East European violin styles, including, Magyar nóta, Romanian lautari, Ukrainian, Carpatho-Rusin, and Slovak folk music. A performer with the Harmonia ensemble, Steven’s intense study of East European folk music has brought him into contact with professional folk musicians from the Balkans, Hungary, Slovakia, Romania, Ukraine, and Russia.
